

Rich McDrew's garden

Below is the Rich's 10-20-30-40 listing. This refers to the 10 wild mammals, 20 native wildflowers, 30 native trees/shrubs, and 40 wild birds that have been seen from or are in this garden.

WILD MAMMALS (10)

Bats
Columbia Blacktail Deer
Coyotes
Field Mice
Fox Squirrels
Gophers
Opossums
Raccoons
Red Foxes
Skunks

NATIVE WILDFLOWERS (20)

Baby-blue-eyes
Blue dicks
Buttercups
California Poppies
Columbines
Douglas iris
Hound's tongue
Indian paintbrush
Indian warrior
Ithuriel's spear
Lupine
Milkmaids
Monkey flower
Owl's clover
Penstemon
Seaside daisy
Shooting stars
Soap plant
Woodland star
Yarrow

NATIVE TREES/SHRUBS (30)

Bigleaf Maple
Bishop Pine
Buckeye
California Bay
Ceanothuses (various species)
Coast Live Oak
Coast Redwood
Coast Silk Tassel

Coffeeberry
Colorado Blue Spruce
Creambush
Desert Willow
Elderberry
Evergreen Huckleberry
Flannel Bush
Gooseberry
Grey Pine
Huckleberry Oak
Incense Cedar
Interior Live Oak
Jeffrey Pine
Madrone
Manzanitas (various species)
Monterey Pine
Olive Redbud
Scrub Oak
Tan Oak
Toyon
Valley Oak

WILD BIRDS (40)

Turkey Vulture
Sharp-shinned Hawk
Red-tailed Hawk
American Kestrel (Sparrow Hawk)
California Quail
Rock Dove
Mourning Dove
Barn Owl
Screech Owl
Great Horned Owl
Anna's Hummingbird
Allen's Hummingbird
Common Flicker
Acorn Woodpecker
Downy Woodpecker
Steller's Jay
Scrub Jay
Common Crow
Plain Titmouse
Common Bushtit
White-breasted Nuthatch
Mockingbird
California Thrasher
American Robin
Western Bluebird

Starling
Red-winged Blackbird
Northern Oriole
Brewer's Blackbird
Black-headed Grosbeak
Lazuli Bunting
Evening Grosbeak
House Finch
American Goldfinch
Lesser Goldfinch
Brown Towhee
Dark-eyed Junco
Golden-crowned Sparrow
Purple Martin
Barn Swallow