

Kathy and Don Brancheau, San Ramon

Cercis Occidentalis

Ceanothus Concha

Garrya Ellipica 'Eve Case'

Rhamnus Californica

Ribes Malvaceum

Achillea Milleforium

Achillea 'Moon beam'

Dudleya brittonii

Epilobium-California Fuchsia

Monardella Macrantha

Monardella Villosa

Festuca Californica

Festuca Idahoensis

Eriogonum Cinereum

Heuchera Maxima

Sisyrinchium Bellum- yellow and blue

Erigeron 'W.R.'

Erigeron glaucus

Lonicera Involucrata

Hoita Macrostchya

Eriogonum Grande Rubescens

Salvia Bee Bliss'

Arcto. Densiflora 'Sentinel'

Aristolochia Californica

Ceanothus-Yankee point? (It is a low lying one)

Platystemon Californicus

Verbena- red and purple

Vitis Californica

Showy, and narrow leaf milkweed

Bleeding Hearts

Abutilon

Buddleia davidii

One more note on the garden:

Whenever we are buying plants we always have to keep in mind the amount of shade we have from the neighbor's tree, and the fact that we want to attract hummingbirds and butterflies.